Tim Spain Joins Metropolitan Theatres as Vice President of Operations

Los Angeles, CA – Metropolitan Theatres announced Timothy Spain has been appointed Vice President of Operations.

“We are proud to have someone of Tim’s caliber join our management team and believe his presence will further advance our company’s goals and performance,” said David Corwin, Metropolitan’s President.

With nearly thirty years of industry experience, Spain most recently served Southern Theatres as Chief Operating Officer. Previously, he was Vice President for Harkins Theatres during a major growth phase, 1998-2006; Spain started his career with AMC in 1980.

“I am thrilled with the opportunity David has provided me, and am excited to join Metropolitan Theatres Corporation, with its rich heritage in the exhibition industry,” said Spain.

Metropolitan Theatres is a fourth generation family owned theatre circuit with twenty-one locations and 104 screens in California, Colorado, Idaho, Utah, and British Columbia. For additional company information, please visit www.metrotheatres.com.
